

CTC Source Protection Committee Members Biography

Lynne Moore

Agriculture

Lynne Moore lives on a 195-acre dairy farm in Terra Cotta with her husband, Jim, and their three sons, Brian, 23; Brent, 20 and David, 16. Lynne and Jim have been married for 25 years and operating Spring Hedge Farm where they have a registered breeding herd of Holsteins, a few beef cows and turkeys.

Ms. Moore is also an acting assistant trial co-ordinator, Superior Court Trial Office for the Ministry of the Attorney General, at the A. Grenville and William Davis Courthouse in Brampton, where she has worked for the last 20 years. She is a graduate of Fanshawe College and also a Human Relations and Public Speaking Graduate of the Dale Carnegie Programme.

Ms. Moore's background includes a great deal of volunteer experience including chair of the School Council and Community School Association; vice chair of the Parents Committee of 892 Snowy Owl Air Cadet Squadron (seven years); and many years of experience leading and volunteering with the local 4-H Clubs. She has coached T-Ball and softball, Junior curling and Queen of the Furrow for Dufferin-Peel and Brampton Fair Queen. She has held the role of secretary-treasurer of the Peel-Halton Landowners Association and director of the Ontario Landowners Association.